mihrab, an empty niche that points the direction to the holy Mecca. It is often decorated with precious colorful ceramics.

6

imam, the spiritual guide of Islam, who stands on the minbar, a sort of altar next to the mihrab, to tell the prayers.

covered zone, where men pray knelt barefoot on carpets. Women have to pray in a different zone, separated by a different entry too.

THE MOSQUE

1

sahn, central court: it welcomes the believers and it gives shelters to beggars. It contains a fountain in the middle, for ablutions, done before the prayers.

central fountain, where the believers get prepared for their prayers, washing their hands, teeth, arms, head, neck and feet.

minaret, the great tower from which the muezzin calls the believers for the prayer five times a day.
